B&R TRUCK

In the summer of 2011, B&R's launched their catering truck. They serve the greater Los Angeles area seven days a week! Follow the truck's Twitter Page at www.twitter.com/BR_on_Wheels or email br.foodtruck@gmail.com for catering.

Norma and Richard are pleased with the success of their small establishment and have been equally blessed to have their oldest son, Bryan join the ranks of their enterprising team.
